Attachment A

On June 29, 2018, Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) Special Agents (SAs) were conducting surveillance at a local Federal Firearms Licensee (FFL). SAs observed an individual later identified as, Ruben Ramos BELTRAN, taking possession of a large order of ammunition and placing the ammunition into his vehicle. Thus, SAs initiated mobile surveillance of BELTRAN. A Hidalgo County Sherrieff Deputy conducted a traffic stop in Mercedes, Texas. During the traffic stop, BELTRAN gave consent to the Deputy to search his vehicle, while also stating that there was ammunition inside.

HSI and ATF SAs proceeded to conduct an interview of BELTRAN. BELTRAN stated he was going to take the ammunition to a storage room located in Brownsville, Texas. BELTRAN stated that another unknown person was going to pick up the ammunition and take it into Mexico. BELTRAN stated he knew the ammunition was going into Mexico. BELTRAN stated that he knew it was illegal to take ammunition into Mexico. BELTRAN also stated that he did not, nor had he ever applied for a license to export ammunition from the Unites States. BELTRAN stated that he was going to get paid four hundred dollars ($400) to take the ammunition to the storage room in Brownsville, Texas.
